CAALA VEGAS HIGHLIGHTS A PROGRAM THAT OFFERS SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

I hope this column finds you all in good health and high spirits as we head into the month of August. The summer season is in full swing, and with it comes a series of exciting events and opportunities for our CAALA community.

CAALA Vegas

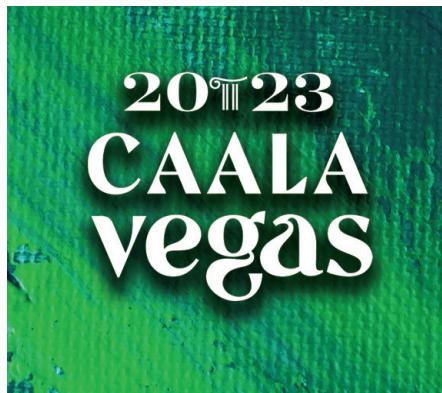

First and foremost, I want to draw your attention to the upcoming CAALA Vegas Conference, which will be held from August 31st to September 3rd at the Bellagio Resort. This conference has always been a highlight of our calendar, bringing together legal professionals from all over California and beyond. It provides an excellent opportunity for networking, knowledge sharing, and professional growth. I encourage all of you to mark your calendars and join us for this prestigious event.

Women in Law Conference

Looking ahead to October, we have the highly anticipated Women in Law Conference. This conference is planned exclusively for women, by women, with the aim of empowering and supporting female legal professionals. It will be a fantastic platform to discuss important topics, share experiences, and foster meaningful connections. I believe that events like these are crucial in promoting diversity and inclusivity within the legal profession. So, ladies, get ready to be inspired and motivated!

Submissions for Trial Lawyer of the Year and Rising Star

October is also when we begin the selection process of Trial Lawyer of the Year, Rising Star, and our other awardees who we will honor in January at the Gala. The qualifying period is from August 1, 2022 to July 31, 2023. The selection process starts with your nomination. Obtain the nomination forum from CAALA's website or contact Martha Ruiz, Martha@caala.org.

Leadership retreat

And as we approach the end of the year, I am delighted to announce our Leadership Retreat, scheduled for November. This retreat will provide an exclusive opportunity for our members to come together and engage in strategic discussions and visionary planning. It is an event specifically designed for leaders within our organization, aimed at shaping the future of CAALA. I encourage all those in leadership roles to attend and contribute to the success of this retreat.

Success comes from our involved members

In addition to these exciting events, I want to express my gratitude to each and every one of you for your continued support and dedication. CAALA's strength lies in its members, and it is your commitment that makes our organization thrive. Together, we have achieved significant milestones, and I am confident that with your involvement, we will continue to reach new heights.

I would also like to take a moment to acknowledge the outstanding work done by our committees and volunteers. Your efforts in organizing events, providing educational resources, and advocating for the legal community are truly commendable. I am proud to be a part of such a passionate and talented group of individuals.

Be uplifted! Stay involved

Lastly, I encourage you all to stay connected and engaged with CAALA. Follow our social media channels, attend our events, and take advantage of the various resources available to you. Remember, CAALA is not just an organization; it is a community that supports and uplifts its members.

Thank you once again for allowing me to serve as your president. It is a privilege to represent such an esteemed organization. I look forward to seeing you at the CAALA Vegas Conference, the Women in Law Conference, and the Leadership Retreat. Let's continue to make a positive impact together!
